University News

UCalgary Mourns Loss of Queen Elizabeth II

UCalgary President and Vice-Chancellor Ed McCauley said it is with great sadness the University of Calgary joins the world in mourning the loss of Her late Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II. As head of state, she presided over some of the most significant moments in Canadian history, including the repatriation of Canada's constitution and the signing of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms in 1982. She also briefly visited UCalgary in 1990 when she inspected regiments at McMahon Stadium.
