Something Brewing

The difference between “One day…” and “Day one” is subtle, but it is measured by an individual's willingness to take that massive first step and decide that today is the day in which they will Start Something. In this article from Mike Fisher we meet four UCalgary alumni who all took different steps to establish themselves in the ultra-competitive beer and restaurant business. With degrees in business, engineering, communications and education, the beer business may not have been the plan from the outset. But each of these UCalgary graduates found themselves with unique ideas, a willingness to adapt and most importantly an entrepreneurial spirit fostered at the University of Calgary.
